Well written adventure.

By rugby765

This is a fast paced well organized novel that branches out into subplots but doesn't stray long enough that you forget what you were reading. The only drag in the work was the end where the author spent too much time with philosophy and it slowed the dramatic finish I was waiting for.

Wonderful

A stunning conclusion to the series, this book kept me up far past my bedtime. At times tragic, it was nonetheless wonderful to follow Sennar and Nihal's story to its end and see the evolution of these characters.
